6. SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM: The Total Army Sponsorship Program is a Commander's program that provides the structure and foundation for units to welcome and help prepare Soldiers, civilian employees, and Family Members for their new duty station in advance of their actual arrival. Commanders and individual sponsors are keys to success, whereas:

a. The Human Resources Military will receive the DA Form 5434 (Sponsorship Program Counseling and Information Sheet), from individual Soldiers requesting a sponsor. The HRM will send a welcome letter to all service-members that are requesting a sponsor. The HRM will make initial contact with gaining organization/unit to provide them with Soldier's information and request a sponsor be assigned.

b. A welcome letter will be sent from the battalion (activity) commander (for officers), command sergeant major (for enlisted Soldiers to the incoming Soldier within ten calendar days following receipt of DA Form 5434 (Sponsorship Program Counseling and Information Sheet).

c. The Director of Civilian Personnel Advisory Center in coordination with the activity director (for civilian employees) will send a welcome letter to the incoming civilian employee within ten calendar days following receipt of DA Form 5434 (Sponsorship Program Counseling and Information Sheet) by the battalion (activity).

d. Sponsor's Duties. The sponsor will, upon notification of duties, write or call the Soldier or civilian they are to sponsor. The sponsor should ask for travel plans, expected reporting date, deletion or deferment requests and any other information needed. IAW Table 2-6, AR 600-8-8.

e. Reactionary Sponsor. A reactionary sponsor is assigned when a Soldier or civilian has initially declined a sponsor or is an un-programmed gain to the command. The HRM will interview the Soldier on his/her assignment and notify gaining organization/unit. If sponsor is requested, unit will assign an individual who will assume sponsorship duties. Comply with Table 2-7, AR 600-8-8.

f. Selecting Sponsors. Sponsors represent the first impression a newly assigned Soldier or civilian receives of USASA - Dix. Only individuals who can represent the gaining unit or activity in a positive manner will be selected as sponsors. Sponsor should comply with current guidance outlined in Paragraph 2-8, AR 600-8-8.

g. Training. Commanders and Directors will ensure sponsors are adequately trained to perform tasks related to sponsorship. The Army Community Services is available to provide training support.

h. Requesting a Sponsor. Departing Soldiers will fill out a DA Form 5434 as part of their levy briefing. Sponsors will be assigned by the gaining command.

7. SPOUSE RECOGNITION UPON SPONSOR'S PCS: In an effort to standardize and formalize recognition upon departure for deserving spouses, the USASA - Dix Certificate of Appreciation signed by the Commander is the standard. These spouses, who by their willing devotion and service contributed significantly to the morale and well being of USASA - Dix, without whom this post could not function, fully deserve this recognition and should be appropriately recognized for their service.
